JANG MEDIA GROUP

In the course of 24 hours, nearly 35 million Pakistani consumers read, watch, listen or browse a brand owned by the Jang Group. Jang Group enjoys 50% of total readership in Pakistan and total advertising revenues of the group account for almost 34% of total ad spend in Pakistan.

The Group is now the largest and the fastest growing media group in Pakistan with a diversified portfolio of media properties. With six newspapers, two weekly magazines, five TV channels and number of digital properties, JANG Group is by far the number one media conglomerate in the country. Jang Group started its journey by launching 'Daily Jang' from Delhi in 1939 and now Jang Group and its affiliate companies employ over 5,500 people across Pakistan.

The Group's print flagship brand Daily Jang is published from Karachi, Lahore, Rawalpindi, Quetta and Multan and is country's largest newspaper with the widest newspaper readership. The News is one of Pakistan's premier English daily and is published from Karachi, Lahore and Islamabad.

Both Jang and The News also publish their overseas edition from London. In fact Jang London is the largest ethnic newspaper in the UK. Other daily titles include Awaz – Lahore, Waqt – Lahore, Inqilab – Lahore, Awam – Karachi, Daily News – Karachi and Pakistan Times. In the consumer magazines sector, the group's two magazines Akhbar-e-Jahan and MAG account for nearly 50% of the total magazines readership in the country.

The Group's broadcast portfolio includes the largest and most popular satellite television network in Pakistan having majority share of cable & satellite television viewership. GEO TV network is the largest television network in Pakistan, comprising 5-channels: GEO News, GEO Tez, GEO Entertainment, GEO Kahani and GEO Super.

Jang Group's news website www.jang.com.pk, www.geo.tv and www.thenews.com.pk are Pakistan's top most visited websites.
